The BULLETIN is proud to be counted in such good company.

Under ordinary circumstances it would have cost a good many dollars to secure the page of the Review which in this case is given free for the information of its readers.

SELF DENIAL.

The Salvation Army's annual week of prayer and self denial takes place throughout this territory from Nov. 21st to Nov. 27th, inclusive. Every salvationist is more than occupied with preparations for this event. Everyone who knows anything of the army's work, especially among the poor, knows what this means, and many can testify to the good being done. But it cannot be done without funds, so we kindly ask every friend and person who can to please help us in this great work.

FIRE.

The steam saw and grist mill owned by Leopold Benz, of Wetaskiwin, and located at Big Stone creek six miles north of that town on the Calgary trail, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday night last. Mr. Berg, who was at the mill that night, is at a loss to account for the fire as he visited all parts of the building before going to bed and found everything safe and no fire on except a little in the furnace of the boiler. The burning of this mill will be a very great loss to the surrounding community who get their flour for home use ground there. About 400 bushels of wheat and some lumber and logs were also burned. The loss will be great to Mr. Benz, who is deserving of every credit for the enterprise shown by him in his erection of the mill.

WHEAT LOWER.

To-day the top price of wheat at the elevators is reported to the BULLETIN at 65c a fall from 70c since Monday. The fall in price has caused a decrease in deliveries. The difficulty of crossing the river has also caused deliveries to slacken.

Oats are about the same, 20c to 24. Very little barley offering.

Butter scarce at 15c to 18c for tub and 18c to 20c for fresh prints.
Eggs were scarce at 20c. A typographical error in the BULLETIN of issue before last made the price 20c, but this should have been 20c. Everything points to a further rise in both butter and eggs. This is the first time in about three years that either articles have been scarce in the Edmonton market.

DIPHTHERIA.

The Battleford Herald says that black diphtheria has broken out in Saskatchewan and the town is closely quarantined. The death rate has not kept pace with the disease owing probably to the use of anti-toxine. Saskatoon is Battleford's railway point.

LOS ANGELES TO PEACE RIVER.

The Los Angeles party of twenty-three men with 120 horses, will start for Peace river on Saturday, going by Fort Assiniboine and Lesser Slave lake. The horses cost from $12.50 to $20 and were purchased at the Blackfeet reserve, 60 miles east of Calgary, and at Edmonton. In reference to a statement recently appearing in the Winnipeg Free Press that this party had been unable to purchase the supplies they required in Edmonton and had to send to Calgary for them, they say that they have purchased their complete outfit of provisions, clothing and general supplies at Edmonton and are well satisfied with the prices charged and the goods offered. They complain, however, that there was a shortage of evaporated potatoes and onions, and the filling of their order for these articles from the States caused some delay. They expect to get an additional outfit forwarded to them from Edmonton during the coming winter or next spring to Peace river where they expect to winter. The names are: Geo. Fugard, Sim Collier, Geo. Prindle, D. A. Spear, M. Dornay, J. A. McGruder, E. A. Marshall, V. H. Raleigh, E. B. Smith, F. E. Banks, J. B. Smith, I. B. C. Fisher, Nick Crews, J. Fenwick, H. SIFTON IN VICTORIA.

From Victoria Oct 31st report.

Hon. Clifford Sifton, minister of Interior, was presented with a formal address by the Victoria board of trade on his return from Dyea on Nov. 3rd.

The memorial dealt with many subjects. A paragraph was devoted to the Stickeen route as follows:

The value of an all-Canadian route to the Klondike gold fields is beyond all doubt, and it is believed that the most practical one is via the Stickeen river and Teslin lake. There will be no difficulty in getting to Glenora and Telegraph creek by steamers during the summer months, but over the portage between the river and Teslin lake a light railway is required. We would be encouraged by your assurance that any reasonable assistance asked for in its construction will meet with your support. With such a railway, and the steamer connections which would be provided on Teslin lake and rivers to the Klondike, the principal passenger and light freight traffic would doubtless be secured.

We would ask the Dominion government to consider the establishment of mail posts along this route.

The Yukon mining regulations are noticed as follows:

With regard to the royalties which are to be levied on the gold output of the Yukon, this board assumes that it is only a temporary expedient. It is hoped that the Dominion government will soon repeal that measure, and also the retention for sale of every alternate claim, substituting therefor the regulation that only British subjects be allowed to become owners of claims.

The minister replied to the paragraph regarding the Stickeen route as follows:

"It was in order to become acquainted with the facts as to the best means of getting transportation into the country that he made his present visit. There were three routes to the Yukon available—one by means of the Yukon river; the second by the passes at the head of Lynn canal; and the third by the Stickeen river and Teslin lake. Before he had started from Ottawa he had sent a surveyor over the Chilkoot pass and Dalton trail, and a preliminary report had been received. He would also have complete reports on the Chilkoot and White Pass trails. Mr. W. T. Jennings, a very able surveyor, and others had been examining the Stickeen river district and Telegraph creek trail, and when that gentlemen got back to Toronto and received the reports of his assistants he would have accurate information of the river, the cost of building a railway, and other necessary data. Tests were also being made of the navigability of the Hootalinqua river. He was not in a position to say now what route would be selected or how much money the Dominion government would give in aid of it, but he was prepared to say that he shared with his colleagues the determination to open a Canadian route to the Yukon (applause); not from any prejudice to the country represented by Mr. Smith (the United States), but from his duty as a member of the Canadian government. (Applause). As representing the West in the cabinet—and he hoped British Columbia would soon have one of her own residents there (applause)—he would give his strongest support to the opening of any reasonable means of communication to the Yukon country at the earliest possible date. (Applause). He could say, after taking his short trip north and experiencing a taste of the hardships to be encountered, that it was quite useless to expect mining to be carried on in the Yukon without better means of communication. If in the spring another attempt were made to get in a large amount of supplies by the Lynn canal trails, the crash would result in it becoming impossible to keep the trails in order, just as was the case this year. He believes that a good summer route open for four or five months in the year would answer for freight purposes.

Taking up the royalty and alternate claims regulations, Hon. Mr. Sifton declared it to be the policy of the government to impose royalty, and he was not able to say that there is any immediate prospect of that royalty being abrogated. Instead of alternate claims, practical experience shows that the miners cannot work satisfactorily unless their claims are contiguous, and it might be better, instead of reserving alternate claims, to reserve blocks. He had the advantage of having with him on his trip as an adviser Mr. William Ogilvie, who knew more about the Yukon than any other man in Canada, and knowing his probability of character and disinterestedness, it could be said that there was no man more capable of giving reliable advice on any subject connected with the Yukon. (Applause).

After the minister had made his reply several members of the board discussed further some of the subjects touched on.

Mr. R. H. Hall, in reference to the mining royalty, said that he had had the opportunity of hearing many intelligent mining men express their views upon this question, and they agreed that to raise a revenue by royalty would be excessively unpopular, and besides being hard to collect would be a hardship on the miners, for while one claim was rich and another only paying wages it would be manifestly unfair to have one uniform royalty. In his opinion it would be much better to raise a revenue by charging a tax for the privilege of mining.

Hon. Mr. Sifton in referring to the remarks of the several speakers said that he was not set in his opinion about the royalty, but wished to do what was best for all concerned. It would require a large amount of money to open up the country, and no doubt after the placer mines were worked out there would be the permanent industry of quartz mining, but the people of the East had to put up a good deal of money for such enterprises as the Crow's Nest railway, and they must be made to feel that they were getting some return for their money.

Thos. Earle, M. P., was greatly pleased at having Hon. Mr. Sifton present to give his views, but reminded him that as all the ordinary revenue of the Yukon went into the Dominion treasury the revenue derived would be large enough to pay for the government service rendered in the district, without resorting to a large royalty on gold. While the miners might be ready to pay a reasonable tax on their output, still they would be opposed to paying 10 per cent. out of the output of their mines. They should be asked to pay in taxes only as much as other citizens, and no more. Mr. Earle went on to remark that as the present government had followed the policy of the last government in almost all matters, Hon. Mr. Sifton would not, as long as they carried out that policy, meet with any opposition from the speakers. (Applause and laughter.) Mr. Earle did not think that it would be well to put in an alien clause in the mining regulations at present as people were needed to develop the country. He moved a vote of thanks to the minister for his address.

In reply to other matters touched on in the address the minister said that customs posts would be established on all trails leading through United States territory into the Yukon. The allowance of 100 pounds of miners' supplies duty free would cease on Jan. 1st, 1898. He was considering the proposition to require Yukon prospectors to take out miners' licenses. An escort for gold being taken out of the Yukon would be provided, and negotiations were in progress to have one of the strongest Canadian banks establish a branch in the Yukon to buy gold at a fair price.

EDMONTON, October 16th, 1897.

We, the undersigned Chicago men on our way to the Klondyke via the Edmonton route, arrived here in good shape October 14th and find the weather delightful and all that could be desired.

We have already purchased our outfit from McDougall & Secord and are well satisfied with the goods and prices and know that we have saved from fifty to one hundred dollars in buying here instead of Calgary. From our experience you do not want to bring anything with you for this is the best place to outfit, and we can confidently recommend Chicago parties and others to outfit where we did, feeling satisfied they can save money by doing so.

You don't want to believe what the Calgary people tell you about outfitting at Edmonton for we were most grossly misinformed.

We leave for the North to-day (16th) with everything we require and well satisfied with the prospects.

OLDS.

Three threshers are operating this season in the vicinity of Olds: Thos. Smith, steam traction; S. Hayes & Co., horse power, and A. Weber & Co., horsepower (Didsbury).

The crop here was extra good all around except about two or three sections on the Dog Pound, 12 miles west of Olds, which was struck by hail, but came up and made good green feed. The grain is extra good and plump, and is turning out better to the acre than anyone expected.

PEACE RIVER TRAIL.

The party sent by the Northwest government to clear a sleigh road from the Athabasca river at Fort Assiniboine to Lesser Slave lake, left on Tuesday afternoon with two teams to commence work. The party is in charge of Alex. Cameron, of South Edmonton, and comprises besides the foreman, six axemen and a cook. Mr. Cameron has had a great deal of experience in road work of various kinds both in this district and in Manitoba and will no doubt give a good account of himself.

ATHABASCA LANDING.

Navigation on the river here has practically ceased for the season though no ice was running up to noon on Saturday last, the 6th.

Fred Swift and Jos. Cluter went down the river last week on a hunting and trapping trip. They expect to winter on House river.

Wood & McNeil, boat builders, have a house up and logs out to commence sawing.

The gas at the Pelican rapids oil well is still blowing off with, if anything, increased force.

GLENGLARY.

The weather has been fine for the stacking which is now all done.

The crops are all turning out splendidly both quality and quantity. No prairie fires here yet this season. We don't want any either. Miles D. McMillan and Geo. Ryan have both been appointed fire guardians.

R. A. McDonald has purchased a fine driver. Likewise P. McLeod has bought a fine team of roadsters.

A meeting was held in the school house on the evening of October 20th, to organize a literary and debating society. A short program was rendered. Then the following officers were elected: President, Geo. Timney; vice-president, Miss M. McDonald; sec.-treas., J. D. McMillan. Committee, Miss K. McDonald, Miss E. Donovan, Mrs. Angus A. McMillan, Messrs. John D. McDonald, S. Ryan and F. R. F. McKittrick. Next meeting Wednesday, Nov. 17th, at 7:30 p. m.

J. Ryan left this settlement last May to search for a more suitable place of residence. It is said far off fields are green; but not so in this case. For after travelling through several of the Northern and Western States (of which we sometimes hear such glowing accounts) he turned his steps towards Glengarry and at last arrived in this fair country once more. During his absence his farm was managed by his sons, George and Sam. They have had the threshing done already. But have yet about a week's work left. Welcome back Mr. Ryan and may you have many prosperous years yet to live in Glengarry.

The school house is being repaired at last. A good job is being made of it. J. McDougall has the work in hand.

THE TESLIN LAKE ROUTE.

John Martin, a professional packer in the Stikine river region was recently interviewed by the Victoria, B. C. Colonist as to the practicability of the proposed Yukon route by way of Telegraph Creek and Teslin lake. The Colonist says: Mr. Martin expresses the opinion that although the usual difficulties which are to be encountered in a low lying country in the way of marshy ground present themselves on the line of the new trail as laid down by the engineers, still for a sum of about $30,000 the path could be made into a first-class one for pack trains. In this, Mr. Martin's own experience is warrant for his statement, as he has within the past season made a trip over the great portion of the route with his own pack train in forwarding the goods and chattels of a party of Klondikers.

Typhoid fever is so prevalent in Winnipeg that the hospital is overcrowded. It is also prevalent in outside districts of Manitoba.

MARKETS.

The Nor-Wester of Friday, Nov. 4th, says: The returns at the Canadian Pacific office last night were a little incomplete, but so far as they go they indicate that wheat is still falling, though as much as 84 cents was paid for No. 1 hard at Oak Lake. The deliveries reported so far are 92,130 bushels, among them Carberry and Killarney received the highest quantities getting 6,000 and 4,000 bushels respectively. The price of oats at Pilot Mound remain the same as the previous day. Prices of wheat were: Portage la Prairie 78c, Brandon 76c, Moosomin 77c, Regina 73c, Moose Jaw 76c, Souris 80c, Gretna 77c, Glenboro 82c, Minnedosa 80c, Yorkton 71c.

Wheat $1.02 1/2 c. f. o. b. afloat at New York. 93c in Chicago.

The Free Press estimates that 12,000,000 bushels of wheat had been marketed in Manitoba and the Territories up to Nov. 6th.

Wheat dropped 1c throughout Manitoba on Nov. 4th. The Free Press says this is a drop of four cents in four days.

A HARD CASE.

On Tuesday, before A. Rosenzoll, J. P., at Wetaskiwin, C. Loisel, of St. Albert, answered to a charge of having obtained money under false pretences from Geo. Turner, of Wetaskiwin. Case dismissed. A. Prince for defendant. The history of the case is as follows: C. Loisel rented a piece of land near Wetaskiwin from J. Smith, for the past season paying $25 in cash therefor, for which he held receipt. In the fall Loisel decided to remove to St. Albert and sold a stack of unthreshed grain to Geo. Turner for $15. When Turner went to remove the stack he was prevented by one Bowie, a relative of Smith, the landlord, who asserted that Loisel had no right to sell the stack. Turner caused Bowie to be brought before Messrs. Rosenzoll and Anderson, J. P.'s, at Wetaskiwin, on Thursday, but the case was dismissed. He then caused Loisel to be arrested on the charge of obtaining money under false pretences. Loisel lay in jail for a night and day before being bailed and afterwards had to go to Wetaskiwin to answer to the charge.

THE FRESNO PARTY.

The Fresno, Cal., Republican, Oct. 29th, has an interview with J. Wilbur Cate, who has reached home from his trip to Peace river. Of the trip Mr. Cate said: "We started from Edmonton with seven horses each, and the animals carried packs weighing 225 pounds. We camped out every night after leaving civilization and were inconvenienced by rain and mud. We followed an Indian trail, and it was a rough one to pass over, as fallen trees frequently obstructed the way. The country is level, but covered with a thick growth of tamarac, cottonwood and poplar trees. We found sufficient grass for the horses to live on, and game birds and fish were plentiful. We had bear steak several times. Moose, bear and caribou are numerous and the white fish found only in the lakes of that country are the finest I ever tasted. The thermometer dropped to zero just before I started back. It also snowed some. We were losing so many horses by death and abandonment because of exhaustion that I was confident we could not get through this winter, so I concluded to return. The snow and cold weather prevent travel after the middle of October, and winter quarters will be built on the trail in the wilderness and the party remain bound up until spring. They have plenty to eat and will not suffer as wood and water is in abundance. As to J. St. Clair Mack, the man who organized and proposed to guide the expedition, but deserted the party, I have little to say. Perhaps you had best say nothing about him. He disappeared from a Canadian Pacific passenger train on which the party were going to Edmonton. His hat and valise were left on the train. Mack absconded with about $600 that belonged to members of the party and took passage on a west bound train for Vancouver. We telegraphed to the officers along the line to arrest him, but were not notified if he was captured." The Republican remarks that Mr. Cate was looking well and had gained 30 pounds in weight during his trip.

"The Klondyke"

Whether the route to Klondyke be via St. Michaels and the Yukon, or via Dyea or Skagway and the Chilkoot, Chilkoot or White Passes, or via the Stikine route, which is the most likely, or via Edmonton, Ashcroft and the different routes, the Canadian Pacific Railway will be the best if not the only route to travel by.

Full information will shortly be in the hands of all agents of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. The Company is now making enquiries to ascertain before advising the public which will be the best route to go in by. From information in its possession a too early start does not necessarily mean first arrival at the Klondyke. Ample time will be allowed for all necessary arrangements.

If you are going East or to the Old Country this fall write for a list of the rates that are to be in effect.

If you are looking for a place to spend the winter, Japan and the Hawaiian Islands are reached as easily as other points and the expense is less than other resorts.
